

Class Clowns 2018 'Unofficial Regional' Heat (PG) 2018

Class Clowns is Melbourne International Comedy Festival's development program for young people around the country. From comedy workshops in schools to a national comedy competition, Class Clowns engages and inspires young funny peeps to hone their potential. With alumni including Joel Creasey, Rhys Nicholson, Aaron Chen and Tom Ballard, Class Clowns truly is a one-of-a-kind experience and a springboard to success!

The Rules:

- Open to secondary students in Years 9-12 or 14-18 years old
- 3-5 minute time limit for acts
- Up to 3 people in an act
- Routines must be original, well-rehearsed, avoid the offensive, and funny!
- Sketch acts, stand up, physical, musical... ANY style of comedy welcome

CLAUSE: This is run in partnership with GELO Company who run the Class Clown Competition in WA. This heat is an unofficial heat of the competition hosted by The Comedy Emporium. Winners of this unofficial heat will receive $300 towards travel if they wish to attend the Perth State Final. All participants are encouraged to enter the WA final.
